Cary J. Mogerman
AAML President

I hope you will consider spending September 18-20 with us at the Venetian Hotel in Las Vegas for the AAML/BVR Joint National Divorce Conference. This joint program of the AAML and Business Valuation Resources is only offered in alternating years and focuses on advanced issues in business valuation, tax, and financial issues arising in our practices. Committee Chairs, Lisa Sharpe and Drew Soshnick, collaborating with their counterparts at Business Valuation Resources, have put together an excellent and memorable program. You will not find another seminar at this level, so carefully tailored to what we do, anywhere else. Take time today to register and put it on your calendar!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Also, this summer we are offering two other signature courses: Advanced Mediation Training, a 40-hour course on June 26 – 29 in Chicago, and What Every Collaborative Family Law Professional Needs to Know, 14 hours of intermediate Collaborative Law training on July 22-24, also in Chicago. The Mediation Committee, chaired by Jeff Brend and David Horowitz, and the Collaborative Law Committee, chaired by Donna Genovese and Neil Kozek, have put a lot of time and effort into creating high-level learning experiences in these programs. I hope you will consider taking advantage of this training if you practice in these fields.

I, along with AAML Foundation President Anne Lamkin Durward, visited the Florida Chapter's 44th Annual Family Law Institute in St. Petersburg earlier this month, as well as their chapter meeting.

Cutting Edge Evidence Issues in Today's Fast-Paced Family Law World

June 10, 20221:00 pm - 2:00 pm ETREGISTER

Effectively using evidence in family law cases is a must for successfully presenting your case.

As social media, electronic communication and technology are constantly evolving, keeping up with the ideas and techniques to present at trial is critical.

This presentation focuses on the Federal Rules of Evidence that are widely applicable across the United States to help practitioners admit or exclude evidence.

2022 AAML Mediation Training*Become an AAML Certified Mediator*40 Hours CLE*June 26-29*Loews Chicago*Chicago, ILREGISTER

This is an interactive program providing information, insights and tips into the mediation process from initial intake work with clients, working with difficult parties, memorializing agreements, and tips on building your mediation practice.

Instructors and attendees from all over the country will provide their unique perspective in an interactive classroom setting.

Hands-on instruction with the opportunity to participate in mock mediation demonstrations and receive feedback are key to the program's success.

Completing the 40-hour program enables Fellows to be certified as an AAML Trained Mediator and to be listed as such on the AAML Website.

14-Hour Training - CLE Available

July 22-24

Schiller DuCanto & Fleck

Chicago, IL

REGISTER

This program is recommended for practitioners with five years or more of Collaborative Law experience and those more advanced who want to refresh and recharge.

Some of the Topics:

This is an innovative and cutting edge seminar aimed at forming and improving your Collaborative Techniques where you will fine-tune your collaborative skills in advocating without becoming adversarial.

Gain the ability to support and advance your client's positions while appreciating the needs, interests and concerns of both clients.

Deepen and extend your collaborative skills to become more effective in achieving results and resolution in difficult matters.

Channel your focus upon the criteria of the client rather than the needs of the practitioner and work effectively with the other members of the collaborative interdisciplinary team. And much more.
