

Contract ARBITRATION

Save Your Seat for the AAML Arbitration Training!!!
Limited Seats Available!

June 1 & 2, 2023

Chicago, IL

This program is only offered every other year to Fellows!

Non-Fellows who meet the qualifications and sponsorship of a Fellow may attend, space permitting.*

Receive two days of in-person training focused on all the important nuts and bolts to conduct a successful arbitration, and a post-training session with your advisor to review and provide direct feedback on the participant's arbitration award.

Fellow Cost:
$1500
Non-Fellow Cost:
$1750

Join us in June to obtain your AAML Arbitrator certification.

Training will be offered to AAML Fellows* and will include the following:

- Pre-training zoom sessions with your designated advisor
- Pre-recorded webinar explaining the history of arbitration
- Relevant statutes, and case law along with professional responsibilities of an arbitrator

Fellows completing the program will receive the certification as an AAML-Certified Arbitrator. Non-Fellows completing the program will receive acknowledgment of their participation in the program.

Instructors:

Carolyn Moran Zack, Momjian Anderer LLC

Rochelle B. "Shelly" Grossman of Potts Shoemaker & Grossman, LLC

Both are experienced family law arbitrators who have trained many family lawyers as arbitrators in Montana, Maryland, Virginia, and DC. Carolyn authored the treatise on Family Law Arbitration: Practice, Procedures and Forms, published by the ABA and the treatise will be provided to the participants as their materials for this Training.

Event Inquires:

Please contact Co-Chairs, AAML Arbitration Committee:

Jennifer Bingham /or/ Amy Amundsen

Enrollment is limited and open to AAML Fellows. Non-Fellows interested in attending will be placed on a wait list and must meet the AAML admission practice requirements of (1) practicing a minimum of 10 years, with the last five years having practiced a minimum of 75% in matrimonial and family law, and (2) are sponsored by an AAML Fellow.*