

Dr. April Harris-Britt is a licensed psychologist practicing in NC and VA. In addition to providing child, adolescent, adult, and family therapy, Dr. Harris-Britt conducts comprehensive psychological evaluations and forensic evaluations. She also serves as a Parent Coordinator. Specific areas of clinical and research expertise include trauma and violence; child development; developmental psychopathology; adoption and attachment; medically fragile children; divorce transitions; ADHD and learning disabilities; autism spectrum disorders; the promotion of wellness; treatment of child, adolescent, and adult diagnoses; best treatment practices; high conflict custody matters; parenting; coparenting; parenting/custody plans; parental capacity; psychological testing and assessments; and the assessment and application of multicultural issues. She emphasizes a strengths-based, ecological approach within her clinical practice, research, and teaching pedagogy. Dr. Harris-Britt has served on numerous Boards and Committees for the American Psychological Association (APA), North Carolina Psychological Association (NCPA), and the Association for Family and Conciliation Courts (AFCC). She is currently President for the NC Chapter of AFCC.

Dr. April Harris-Britt is a licensed psychologist practicing in NC and VA. In addition to providing child, adolescent, adult, and family therapy, Dr. Harris-Britt conducts comprehensive psychological evaluations and forensic evaluations. She also serves as a Parent Coordinator. She emphasizes a strengths-based, ecological approach within her clinical practice, research, and teaching pedagogy. Dr. Harris-Britt has served on numerous Boards and Committees for the American Psychological Association (APA), North Carolina Psychological Association (NCPA), and the Association for Family and Conciliation Courts (AFCC). She is currently President for the NC Chapter of AFCC.