

Judge Joseph was appointed by Governor Andrew Cuomo to the NYS Court of Claims on May 5, 2015. She currently presides over matrimonial cases in the Supreme Court, Suffolk County. In August, 2020 Judge Joseph was named Supervising Judge of the Matrimonial Parts in Suffolk County. Her professional experience includes the positions of Adjunct Professor of Law at Touro Law Center in Central Islip, New York; Support Magistrate in Family Court (NYC and Suffolk County); Supervising Court Attorney in Queens

Family Court; Domestic Violence Court Coordinator for the Center for Court Innovation, and Assistant District Attorney in Manhattan.

Judge Joseph is a frequent lecturer and presenter on family and matrimonial law for various organizations including the New York State Judicial Institute, the New York State Bar Association and the Suffolk County Bar Association. In April 2021 Judge Joseph was appointed Chairperson of the Committee on Equal Justice in the Courts in Suffolk County. Additionally, she serves as a member of the New York State Unified Court System's Access to Justice Committee, the Franklin H. Williams Commission 10th Judicial Advisory Group, the Matrimonial Practice Advisory and Rules Committee, the Matrimonial Curriculum Committee for the New York State Judicial Institute, the Advisory Committee on Attorneys for Children for the 10th Judicial District, and the Mental Health Certification Committee for the First and Second Judicial Departments.

Judge Joseph received her Bachelor of Arts degree magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa from New York University's College of Arts and Science in 1993. She received her Juris Doctor degree from New York University School of Law in 1996 wherein she also received the Myron L. Greene Award for Oral Advocacy. She was born in Brooklyn, New York to Edward and Ruby Joseph who both emigrated to the United States from the West Indies. She was raised in Nassau County and currently resides in Suffolk County with her two sons, Bryce age 19 and Ethan age 17.