

---

Journal of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers

Volume 32

2019

Number 1

This issue is devoted to:

COMPLEX FAMILIES AND EVOLVING LEGAL NEEDS

CONTENTS

Articles:

- Advanced Directives and Family Practice: Implications and Ethics for “Greying” Family Systems and Interdisciplinary Collaboration by Terry Eggenberger, George R. Luck, Heather Howard, and Dana E. Prescott ..... 1
- Mothers with Opioid Use Disorder: Moving Toward Justice, Wellness, and Engagement
by Heather Howard and Wendy F. Guastafarro ..... 29
- Under the Microscope: The Admissibility of Parental Alienation Syndrome
by Kimberley J. Joyce..... 53
- Culture and the Immigrant Experience: Navigating Family Courts
by Hon. George F. Phelan, Donald G. Tye, Tannaz N. Saponaro, and Eva A. Millona..... 89
- Adversarial Systems and Forensic Experts in Child Custody: How About Adding a Hot Tub?
by Dana E. Prescott and Tim Fadgen..... 117

Beyond the Guidelines: The Use of Mental Health Experts in Determining Appropriate Levels of Child Support for Affluent Families
by Jacqueline Singer, Matthew Sullivan, Belinda Hanson, and Jane Caroline Taylor ..... 145

Comments:

Paralegal Assistance and Limited Representation as Alternatives to Self-Representation by Lauren Cook ..... 193

Addressing the Consequences of Addiction in Developing Parenting Plans
by Kaelyn Guinty ..... 215

The 2017 Uniform Parentage Act: A Response to the Changing Definition of Family?
by Camille Workman ..... 233

Bibliography:

Annotated Bibliography of Selected Issues in Family Law: Addiction, Advance Healthcare Directives, the Uniform
Parentage Act, and Self-Represented Litigants
by Allen Rostron ..... 251