

---

Journal of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers

Volume 33

2020

Number 1

This issue is devoted to:

THE FUTURE OF FAMILY LAW

CONTENTS

Articles:

The Future of Family Law Education by Barbara Glesner Fines .....	1
The Future of Litigating an International Child Abduction Case in the United States by Melissa A. Kucinski .....	31
The Legal and Medical Ethics of Post-Mortem Sperm Retrieval on Behalf of Grandparents by Laura W. Morgan and Hannah G. Morgan .....	67
Bending the Light of Social Science in Family Court: Epistemic Injustice and Epistemic Exceptionalism Matter by Dana E. Prescott .....	99
Beyond the Myth of Affluence: The Intersection of LGBTQ Family Law and Poverty by Catherine P. Sakimura .....	137
Changing Tax Laws and Support: Keeping Up as the Ground Shifts by Nancy Chausow Shafer .....	159
A Divorce Practitioner's Bitcoin Primer by Richard West and Jonathan Fields .....	177

Comments:

An Overview of Authentication Methods for Social Media Evidence
by Yasmin Herdoiza ..... 199

How to Stay-At-Home When You Have Two Homes: Covid-19's Effect on Co-Parenting and Child Custody
by Madison McBratney ..... 225

You, Me, and Dad?: An Update on the Progression of Multi-Parent Families and the Governing Hand of a Child's Best Interest
by Iris Siadatifard ..... 249

Bibliography:

The Future of Family Law: An Annotated Bibliography
by Allen Rostron ..... 277